COACHES CODE OF BEHAVIOR

In addition to Squash Australia's General Code of Behaviour (see Regulation 18 – Member Protection Policy) you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held or sanctioned by Squash Australia, a member association or an affiliated club and in your role as a coach appointed by Squash Australia, a member association or an affiliated club:

- a. Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
- b. Provide feedback to players and other participants in a manner sensitive to their needs. Avoid overly negative feedback.
- c. Recognise players' rights to consult with other coaches and advisers. Cooperate fully with other specialists (for example sports scientists, doctors and physiotherapists).
- d. Treat all players fairly within the context of their sporting activities, regardless of gender, race, place of origin, athletic potential, colour, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs, socio-economic status and other conditions.
- e. Encourage and facilitate players' independence and responsibility for their own behaviour, performance, decisions and actions.
- f. Involve the players in decisions that affect them.
- g. Encourage players to respect one another and to expect respect for their worth as individuals regardless of their level of play.
- h. Ensure that the tasks and/or training set are suitable for age, experience, ability and physical and psychological conditions of the players.
- i. Ensure and physical contact with players is appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- j. Be acutely aware of the power that you as a coach develop with your players in the coaching relationship and avoid any sexual intimacy with players that could develop as a result.
- k. Avoid situations with your players that could be construed as compromising.
- l. Actively discourage the use of performance enhancing drugs, and the use of alcohol, tobacco and illegal substances.
- m. Do not exploit any coaching relationship to further personal, political or business interests at the expense of the best interest of your players.
- n. Accept and respect the role of officials in ensuring that competitions are conducted fairly and according to established rules.
- o. Know and abide by rules, regulations and standards, and encourage players to do likewise. Accept both the letter and the spirit of the rules.
- p. Be honest and ensure that qualifications are not misrepresented.
- q. Treat all players with respect at all times. Be fair, considerate, honest and consistent with them.
- r. Refrain from conduct, which could be regarded as harassment towards your players and other coaches, officials and parents.
